

To come from Ohio and to be a third-farmer, are elements of political strength.

When the Southern question disappears from politics, down goes the Democratic party.

So long as Guiteau can attract more attention than Congress his vanity is considerably tickled.

This is the twenty-seventh day of Guiteau's trial. It is hardly possible that it will be finished this year.

It has been remarked that no anti-third former has yet slipped in the cabinet. It looks as though the entire batch was cut off from any cabinet position.

A son of ex-Senator Voorhees will go on the stage next year. He has been long enough with his father and the Democratic party to make a good comedian.

Congressman Spear, of Georgia, says he will never go into a Democratic caucus again. If this thing keeps on there won't be enough Democrats to hold a caucus.

Attorney General elect Crosby has appointed H. W. Chynoweth Assistant Attorney General. This is a good appointment and will therefore give general satisfaction.

Miss Nina Bachelor, is the belle of Louisville, and recently attended a ball at West Point. It is said that the whole corps fairly fell prostrate at her feet. This shows what an education at West Point can do for a young man.

Governor Smith has invited the Oshkosh Rifles, the Fond du Lac Guards, and the Berchard Guards of Beaver Dam, to participate in the inaugural ceremony. Another company will be invited, but which one, has not been determined upon.

There do not appear to be any good guesses in Congress. When the arrears-of-pension bill was under discussion, its friends claimed that it would cost not to exceed twenty-six million dollars. But the cost is three hundred and fifty millions! and still they come.

Since it was learned that there were only nineteen books on religion in the public library at Madison, they have started a revival in that city. Madison has long felt the need of an active religious sentiment. In this respect it has not kept up with its sister city, Janesville.

The American minister to Peru, the Hon. Stephen A. Hurlbut, gets this comment from a Philadelphia paper: "The best thing to do with this brilliant representative of official incompetency would be to invite him home, and tender him the presidency of an Illinois cornfield." This is a reflection on the cornfield.

A dispatch from New York says in effect that "the board of police have inaugurated a war on gambling houses, story entertainments and houses of ill-fame." This is quite new business for New York police to be in, and now a question is will the day ever come when Chicago policemen will follow the sample of the fraternity in New York.

The Parker & Stone reaper works of Ellet, were removed to Milwaukee some time ago, and a new company has been organized composed of L. Holden Parker, red A. Dennett, and H. W. Conger. Articles of association have been filed in the office of the Secretary of State, incorporating the company under the name of the Parker & Dennett Harvesting Machine company, of Milwaukee. The capital stock is $100,000.

Henry G. Vennor, the weather prophet, has written a private letter to the Milwaukee Evening Wisconsin, dated Dec. 26th, in which he predicts as follows: This mild, wet spell will probably give place on the 16th, 17th and 18th to very old and stormy weather, with heavy snow storms and drifts. Another mild spell will be experienced for the week following, the 20th to the 23d. Christmas stormy; New Year's very cold.

Mr. Guiteau has not allowed Judge Fox to put in an objection his language in court. The prisoner has the Judge under pretty good subjection, and proposes to keep him there. Of course, the public can see no good reason why the murderer of the President should be permitted to turn the court room into a beer-garden and the jail into a fair, but he is permitted and asks no odds of the court. Nothing can be saved to public decency in this trial.

If the Democracy should exist till 1884, will likely put up Tilden for the Presidency. All other candidates and public men in that party are played out. Tilden, cat-like, has nine lives, and he will continue to speculate, make fortunes very year till '84, and then take the nomination. Tilden is shrewd. He has kept remarkably quiet for a defeated candidate, attended to his own business, but keeping his eyes on the Presidential star. Longwinded Blue seizes the opportunity to speak for his master in this wise: These considerations seem to me to make it too plain for argument that Tilden is the man around whom the Democracy should rally for 1884. He is the representative man of the National Democracy, which has been prescribed for antagonism to secession, and to the corruption and fraud engendered by it. He represents, therefore, principles and ideas far dearer to the people than those which draw their hearts to Andrew Jackson, and the hero of New Orleans himself would not now be supported by the people with more enthusiasm.

THEATRE FIRES.

The terrible fire at Vienna, resulting in the destruction of the Ring theatre with the loss of more than one thousand lives, has brought to public notice the great theatre fires of the world, the years in which they occurred, and the number of lives lost in each. The record will be found of special interest at this particular time, when the world was shocked by the terrible fate of the Ring in Vienna:

Year	City	No. of persons killed	No. of persons injured
1772	Amsterdam	80	100
1791	Paris, Palais Royal	100	100
1794	Paris, Opera	100	100
1801	London, Sadler's Wells (false alarm)	10	10
1811	Richmond, Va.	10	10
1830	Quebec, Royal theatre	40	40
1835	London, Coburg theatre (false alarm)	10	10
1837	Edinburgh, Theatre Royal	25	25
1839	Philadelphia, American Varieties	15	15
1850	Brooklyn, Theatre	20	20
1856	Boston, Theatre des Arts	20	20
1856	San Francisco, Chinese Theatre (false alarm)	10	10
1858	Calais, France	10	10
1878	Alameda, Cal.	10	10
1881	Concord, Mass.	10	10
1881	Nice, France	10	10

The Ring theatre was burned on the night of the 8th instant, and up to this time the loss of life is not definitely known. Nearly one thousand bodies have been recovered, and only one hundred and twenty-five of that great number have been identified. The actual loss will probably be upwards of eleven hundred, and careful estimates now place it at eleven hundred and fifty.

It is stated on what is considered good authority, that only 12 per cent of theatre fires have occurred during the performance, but 89 have occurred during the night.

A COLORED MAN TO THE FRONT.

Mr. William Henry Smith is a gentleman of color and the librarian of the House of Representatives of the United States. Mr. McPherson, Clerk of the House, having just appointed him to that responsible position. This promotion is one which deserves special notice. One of the most responsible positions in the House is that of librarian. A dozen years ago or more Mr. Smith was employed as a messenger in the library. While in that humble position he took advantage of the opportunities of learning the names of the thousands of volumes in the library and just where each one was, so that in an instant he could lay his hands upon it. He soon knew more about the books in the library than either the assistant librarian or the librarian himself, and more than this, he knew what was in them. Then he became assistant librarian, and in that capacity he won his reputation as one of the most remarkable librarians in this country. It is said that Congressmen have made a noise, not to say a reputation, the facts which this colored messenger dug out for them in the library; and many others have learned from the same modest source what a mistake they would have made, if they had trusted to alleged facts picked up in partisan publications.

For years this colored messenger, now brought to the gaze of the public, has been recognized by Democrats as well as Republicans as a sort of a walking index to the documents of the House of Representatives. Mr. McPherson, thoroughly appreciating the valuable services of William Henry Smith, gave him the appointment and no one who knows how much knowledge a librarian of the House must carry in his head will deny that the appointment is a deserved recognition of an industrious, faithful, and most capable officer. He is the first colored librarian of the House of Representatives, and probably the most efficient that ever filled that position. He knows so much more about the library and what the books contained, than the members of Congress, that during the Democratic regime, he was not removed.

PERSONAL NOTES.

The Rev. Bernard Quinnan, an ex-Catholic priest, has been admitted to the Presbyterian church of Canada.

All the fools are not on this side the Atlantic. MacLeod, of MacLeod, a prominent Britisher, was recently traveling through France and Italy accompanied by two huge cats, each one having a personal attendant.

General Grant and his wife will be the guests of President Arthur during the month of January.

The daughter of A. N. Towne, of San Francisco, was married on Wednesday, to a young stock operator of that city, Charles N. Shaw. It was the most pretentious wedding San Francisco has seen for years. The ceremonies took place at the Palace Hotel, and all the millionaire ladies of the Coast were there. The costumes were the most wonderful creations of celebrated Paris and San Francisco modistes. The supper was one of the most sumptuous ever known to have been given in that city. The richness of the bridal presents beggars description. They included a piano, hundreds of diamonds, silver in vast quantities, railroad bonds, 4 per cent, $1,000 checks, imported clocks, pictures, plaques, lace and furniture. Her father presented her with $10,000 in United States bonds and a set of costly diamonds.

Wendell Phillips celebrated his 70th birthday in Boston a few days ago in a very quiet manner, refusing to have any public demonstration. But on that day when he went to the stores to purchase any article, he was surprised to find that none of them would take any pay for the goods. It was a good time to lay in a winter's supply.

Congressmen Townsend, of Illinois, and Wise, of Virginia, began life as pages in the House of Representatives. Senator Gorman, of Maryland, also began life in the Senate as a page.

SURPASSING HIMSELF.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15.—Guiteau surpassed himself to-day. He was what he termed "pretty lively." He talked almost as much as everybody else about the opening of the court until its adjournment. Those of the audience who sat through both sessions left at three o'clock with the headache. The assassin's tongue moving almost incessantly, rolled off with equal gibes, blasphemy and insolence. He interrupted all the witnesses except his former wife, who was on the stand but a few moments, scolded counsel, advised the court, and lectured the jury and the audience. From the time that he suggested to the marshal that he give the jurors a walk of four miles every morning before breakfast, until the moment when he said, "It's 3 o'clock your honor, let's go home," he was on the alert and his tongue was in the go. His endless racket seems to grow more intense every day. To-day it made the trial at times appear like a huge burlesque, even in the eyes of those who ordinarily regard it as a solemn, disastrous, well conducted affair. The testimony adduced by the prosecution today was very damaging to the defense. Collyer, the New York lawyer, who represented Reese Brothers & Co., the Chicago clients whose claim Guiteau (when he had collected it) pocketed it as his "haul" in a little transaction which got into the papers and ruined Guiteau's practice in New York, swore that he was sane and shrewd when he knew in 1873, J. M. Justice, a Logansport (Ind.) lawyer, swore that he was sane and shrewd when in 1878 he was peddling the "Life of Moody" in Logansport. Dr. Kusi R. Shippen, formerly of Boston, pastor of the All Souls Unitarian church, of this city, testified that he saw and shrewd when he knew in 1873, J. M. Justice, a Logansport (Ind.) lawyer, swore that he was sane and shrewd when in 1878 he was peddling the "Life of Moody" in Logansport. Dr. Kusi R. KEIFER SLOW.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15.—A Representative who has been consulted by Speaker Keifer in the matter of committees says that the report that he will announce them or any considerable number of them to-morrow is absurd. He has not to this hour framed a single committee or taken pen or paper to frame them. He has been considering the qualification and eligibility of the various members, and been consulting with those whose advice he has secured. It is possible that to-morrow the committee on elections may be named, in order that it may commence work and sit during the holiday recess, but this gentleman states that it is quite certain that the committees as a whole will not be named any before the day which shall precede the adjournment for the holiday recess, and that it is very probable that the announcement may be postponed until after the new year.

THE THEATRE FIRE.

VIENNA, Dec. 15.—The manager of the ill-fated Ring Theatre was for several hours yesterday subjected to an examination regarding the disaster.

The workmen who are excavating in the Ring Theatre continue to come across corpses, the presence of which had not been suspected before.

To-day's digging discovered nine charred and blackened bodies, of which three were apparently women, in one of the numerous recesses with which the labyrinth-like halls abounded.

The scene about the streets in the vicinity are heart-rending, and immense crowds of people from the city and neighboring towns continue to visit the horrible scene. A cooler bit of weather has stopped the sickening odors that for a time arose from the structure. One gentleman contributed $62,500 to the fund for the relief of the sufferers by the fire.

OUTRAGEOUS OPPRESSION.

A Recital of Wrong that Demands Investigation at Least.

MADISON, Wis., Dec. 15.—Frank McGeoghegan, who claims to have been connected with the Pioneer-Press and Dispatch, of St. Paul, walked into Madison this afternoon from Chicago. He says that he was arrested in Chicago on the supposition of having deserted from the regular army eleven years ago.

He was confined in jail until after President Garfield's funeral, and then taken to the recruiting rendezvous in Columbus, Ohio. He says the policeman arrested him without a warrant, on the bidding of a non-commissioned officer, and he was denied all opportunity to establish the fact that he was not the man wanted. He was given no trial at Columbus, but was made to wear shackles, and work on an artificial lake in that city. While so engaged he was recognized by a member of his old company, McGeoghegan having been a soldier in the Forty-ninth Wisconsin Volunteers. His identity was proven, and when the Adjutant General came to prefer charges of desertion against him he gave his war record and was released. He says the Ohio officers made no reparation of injury done, except to furnish a ticket to Chicago, and when they paid his clothes to get to Janesville, and walked the balance of the journey to Madison, hoping to find General Fallows, his old commander, here. Officers here are indignant at what appears to have been a flagrant outrage, and will probably call for an investigation by the war department at Washington.

Virtue Acknowledged.

Mrs. Ira Mulholland, Albany, N. Y., writes: "For several years I have suffered from oft-recurring bilious headaches, constipation, dyspepsia, and complaints of my sex. Since using your Bock-Blood-Bitters I am entirely relieved." Price $1.00 trial size 10 cents. Sold by A. J. Roberts, and F. Shier & Co.

WHIPPED TO DEATH.

MILWAUKEE, Dec. 15.—William Hebb, a workman at the Plankinton & Armour packing-house, engaged in the fertilizing department, met with a horrible death at about 7:30 o'clock this morning. He was shoveling the crude material from the drying machine into a receiver, his hand being near a large shaft, which in turn was connected to the cog of the dryer. This shaft was equipped with several bolts, and revolved about two times a minute. As near as can be ascertained, Hebb stooped down and began turning over the material in such a position that his clothes were caught by the shaft, and before he could give the alarm, or word could be conveyed to shout down the engine, the unfortunate man was whipped to death on the floor.

JOURNALISTIC NEWS.

MILWAUKEE, Dec. 15.—The reported sale of a controlling interest in the Sentinel Company to the Republican has caused great excitement. The Sentinel will say editorially to-morrow that the ring politicians have caused it to be rumored on the streets that they were in possession of the majority of stock of the Sentinel Company, and that they would at an early day take the establishment under control and consolidate with their own organ. Within the last two days they have caused a statement of their alleged ownership to be telegraphed to the Associated Press, which is utterly false. There is reason to believe that they have secured possession of $1,400 of the stock of the Sentinel Company, and there is no reason that they have secured any more. It is intimated that stock that was once hypothecated has been sold to the Republican people.

ELECTRIC LIGHT.

FOND DU LAC, Wis., Dec. 15.—The common council last evening resolved to adopt the electric light, and appointed a committee to perfect the arrangements for lighting the city from four towers. The attorney for the gas company was present and addressed the council, giving notice that the company claimed a vested right to light the city, and would seek to enforce its rights. A remonstrance against making the expenditure of the electric light, and signed by some of the heaviest taxpayers in the city, was also presented to the council. Litigation will undoubtedly arise from the proceedings.

BACHELOR'S HALL.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 15.—It was stated at the White House this morning that President Arthur, with his private secretary, will keep bachelor's hall at the Executive Mansion this winter, and that there will be no ladies there except those who may be invited to preside on social occasions.

THE GOOSE-BONE.

On Deck, as Usual, With Weather Prophecies.

(From the Louisville Post.)

The readings of the goose-bone indicate a motley winter. There will be a good deal of snow and a few cold days, but no protracted cold weather. In the month of December there will be no very cold weather. During the last of this month there will be a days when there will be cheerful and an overcast comfortable. It will be an exceedingly disagreeable month for out-door work with snow or rain every day or two. The probabilities are for a wet, gloomy Christmas. This kind of weather will continue on through January, with a few cold days sandwiched between rain and snow. About the middle of January there will be a few clear cold days, when the mercury will go down below zero. The 15th and 16th of January will be as cold days as any experienced in this latitude. The latter part of the month will be wet and gloomy. There will be more genuine winter weather crowded into the little month of February than in December and January, but there will not be any intense cold. With the exception of the few days about the middle of the January it is not likely that the mercury will go far below zero. The goose-bone has long been an honored weather prophet. In some of the back counties in Kentucky the farmers make all their arrangements in accordance with the directions of the goose-bone. In some localities the goose-bone is laid aside, labeled with the year, and it is said that one old farmer in Breathitt county has the bones extending back for more than forty years, and in all that time it is asserted that the bone has never been mistaken as to the weather. To read correctly the weather the bone is translucent, and it will be found to be colored and spotted. The dark color and heavy spots indicate cold. If the spots are of light shade and transparent, wet weather rain or snow may be looked for. There are a good many people all over the country who pin their faith to goose-bone. Of all the weather prophets it is the most honored. The little ground-hog disgraced himself long ago, and now very few people ever watch Candelmas day, and hog's melts are no longer trusted in. A few years ago when Tice and all human weather prophets predicted that a most severe winter ever known, the goose-bone told of a mild open winter. The future is controlled just as the bone said it would, and poor old Tice had to change his predictions every day. The goose-bone never changes and never fails. The reporter has examined three bones, one from southern Kentucky, one from western Kentucky, and one from Laporte, Ind. They are identical to one another, and the reading here given will be found the same on the breast-bone of any goose hatched last spring. Cut this out, lay it aside for reference, and as you crowd up to the fire on the 15th of January, you will be convinced of the great unknown power of the goose-bone.
